GRASS VALLEY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors.

Nov. 1, 2010

Vol. 161, Issue 11

COMING SOON TO YOUR CHURCH!!

Carnival of Ministries
October 9th

ORGAN CONCERT

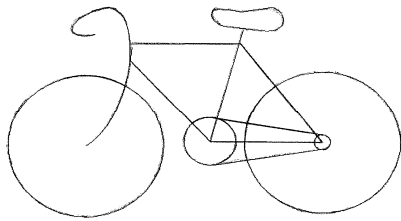

November 21, at 3PM will be Walli Ziegenhagen's organ concert here in the Sanctuary. A free will offering will be taken, and at Walli's request, the offering will again, be given to Habitat for Humanity. Bring your family and friends and support our Walli while enjoying her tremendous talents at the organ.

Our Carnival of Ministries was great fun! The celebration of our ministries were woven together with a magic show by Jeremy Van Hecke and juggling by Zachary Towles; Rev Dr, Tom Smith educated us on Healthy Congregations and our charge conference was the first item of the day. A good time was had by all!

SPIRITUAL DISCOVERY

Pedaling Pastor—November 2010

Jesus may have answered the question “Who is my neighbor?” but the question many are asking today is “Who is my friend?”

Sounds like a strange question because it would appear that the number of “friends” around the world is increasing. Just about anyone is or can be your “friend.” Facebook, the social-networking site, recently confirmed its 500 millionth member. Some experts predict FB will someday number a billion users, i.e. one in five people on earth will be connecting via FB.

People long for human connection and interaction. FB is fun, and we humans like fun. And it provides social connection, and we like human connections. But while our lives are becoming more technologically connected, we may be losing meaningful relationships.

Aristotle, in Nicomachean Ethics says friendship rested on three principles: usefulness, pleasure and respect. Rather than offering the “friend” reassuring palaver that was often dishonest, the ancient ideal of friendship required candor and frankness about one’s virtues as well as one’s faults.

And then there’s my friend Jesus. I’m not sure what Jesus meant when he described his disciples as his friends. But I wonder if we have anymore clarity as to what it means to confirm Jesus as our friend. I love to sing “What a Friend We Have in Jesus” and mean it because it is a privilege to carry everything to him in prayer. I’m sure that Jesus is all the friend he is suppose to be. But I’m less sure of the friend I am, or how the church is shaping our friendships with Jesus. I’m pretty sure Jesus desires more than an occasional FB posting.

The church can certainly help us not only strengthen our human relationships, gifting us with one or two deep human relationships, but also fortify our connection with God through Jesus Christ. If friendship grows when it’s allotted some unstructured time, then worship can be thought of as a specific block of time when we give our undivided attention to God. Not that God shouldn’t get our time during the rest of the week, but when we gather as a collective body of friends, we aren’t only strengthening human relationships, but we’re growing in our relationship with the Divine.

Abundant Blessings and Thanksgiving,
Pastor Tana

SPIRITUAL DISCOVERY

2nd Year of Healthy Congregations!!

We continue to meet as we did all last year on the first Wed of each month 9-11. Our professional consultant is with us now quarterly and our very own church leaders lead the classes in between that.

We have backed up and are reading again and discussing our course book Healthy Congregations. We are also spending time on case studies and looking at material for developing a Covenant of Care and Discipleship over the next year.

This work is an extension of Vital Signs & Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations. Our desire is to serve God making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Nov. Chapter 4, December Chapter 5.

The SEEKERS explored the following topics recently

Religious Freedom - There is a right to build a house of worship anywhere, but some locations might not be wise choices. Religious tolerance in the Jeffersonian tradition is slipping.

Labor Day - It was not until 1933 when a maximum number of workday hours, a minimum wage and the right to collective bargaining were established.

Understanding Islam - Muslims believe they are descended from Ishmael, Abraham's son by Hagar. Although Islam projects itself as a religion of peace, many people in the West believe it is a religion of violence, citing the activities of Osama bin Laden and Muhammed Omar as examples.

MUSINGS FROM YOUR CLM

(Certified Lay Minister)

Before the year comes to an end, and it's coming quickly, I would like to catch you up with my year as your CLM. This year has enabled me to do many interesting things. I have conducted several graveside services for nonmembers of our church. People call the church office looking for a Methodist minister to perform these services. Somewhere in the family there is a Methodist background. I enjoyed planning and conducting these services, more than one would expect. In addition, we sometimes receive calls from nursing homes and/or families requesting a Methodist minister to spend time talking to one who is extremely ill and perhaps on the verge of death. I honored these requests when possible. However, while rethinking these requests, it became clear that my time would be better spent within my own church.

Participating in worship is one of my passions. I am fortunate to have a part in each worship service and these pieces are continually evolving. It is my desire to take on a more active role in 2011. One of my fondest achievements was to plan and conduct an Ash Wednesday service. I have recently been given the opportunity of planning and conducting an All Saint's Day service on November 1. Also on November 1, Pray Nevada County has requested that GVUMC open their doors for one hour for the community to come in to pray for the elections to be held the next day and to participate in a short worship service. I am planning and arranging this service also.

Pastors are asked to work within the community outside of the church. I have been lax in making a commitment. I have an interview coming up in the near future with the Friendship Club to see how I can be of service. The Friendship Club works with girls from the age of twelve through high school.

I have done some things well this past year and some, not so well. I intend to grow stronger in 2011. It is my pleasure to serve GVUMC in any way possible. Thank you for your love and support. I am blessed!

Advent & Christmas Class

Saturdays 10-11:30

Nov 20-December 18

You are invited to join Pastor Tana in her lovely office to reflect and discuss Advent & Christmas with Thomas Merton.

This book is arranged for use on every day of the Advent & Christmas seasons. Each day's reflection begins with a scriptural quotation, continues with a thought from the writings of Thomas Merton and concludes with a prayer for the day. Merton's writings capture the familiar themes of the season: the Incarnation, anticipation, angels, giving, and many others—each drawing us closer to the joy of welcoming the Savior into our lives.

Thomas Merton, the renowned Cistercian monk, brings us to a fresh experience as we look forward to the coming of the Messiah who will make all things new again. In the spirit of monastic simplicity, without all the clutter, noise and anxiety. Everyone searching for simple spiritual joy will want to spend Advent & Christmas with Thomas Merton.

Beginning on November 7th. Sign-ups will be on Sunday in Wesley Hall or leave a message for Pastor Tana at 272-1946 ext. 1.

This thank-you includes all servers of any age and effort who make your dinners and lunches such happy and generous offerings. I seldom miss. I know how much labor and money all of this costs you. This means a great deal to those who are hungry and often jobless or even homeless.

If I can ever be of assistance, let me know. I'll help if I can.

Thank you again.

Georgie Coulter

PS You truly are greatly appreciated.

Lunch at the Crossroads

Dear Grass Valley United Methodist Church,

Last Friday I had the gift of going with a friend to your delightful free lunch. I was a little nervous because of stereotype images I have in my head of this. But God was Gifting me through you the whole time from start to finish.

The Holy Spirit & Christ were so present!! Thank you, thank you, thank you.

I loved the clothes and I got 2 shirts (very needed) and a beautiful crochet cloth for my kitchen table.

The food was delicious & the music joyful and the serving on us felt like a reputable good restaurant which I can rarely afford. I, also, got much extra food that was wonderful. I wouldn't change a thing!

May God Bless You Forever.

Sincerely , Lane & Radha

SOLAR POWER

About the possibility of Solar at GVUMC --

With our large new Boy Scout troop, remodeling at Nu-Step School, remodeling the choir and music director's office and the building of two new classrooms, Solar was put on a back burner. Within a couple of months we should be able to have a question and answer presentation on Solar. The trustees have worked hard for many months researching and checking out reliable companies.

We look forward to seeing the fruits of their labors as we seek to be faithful stewards of God's great Creation by continuing to be as GREEN as we can be.

SCRIP ALERT

Our Scrip participation at Safeway, Raleys, and SaveMart is providing a steady flow of revenue for our church. This is a great help to our budget when you shop at these stores.

- * Use your store Scrip card each time you check out.
- * Renew your Safeway card by Nov. 1st (www.escrip.com – click on "Yes Renew").

Wesley House UCB

UMC Campus Ministry

This fall our Campus Ministry at UCB began a new era with student housing for 90 students in an intentional spiritual formation environment. 50 students are currently living in Wesley House with full capacity hoped for by fall of 2011.

Wesley House is at the moment the GREENEST building in Berkeley. Created from recycled materials and incorporating passive solar and heating into the structure.

UMC pastor, artist, lawyer and playwright Rev Tarah Trueblood is Campus Minister at Wesley House.

Pastor Tana is active at Wesley House as we work together to create a new generation of faithful disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

OUTREACH

Hospitality House gets $1 million grant for a new home.

Hospitality House is on its way to having a permanent home in Grass Valley. The Emergency Housing Assistance Program Capitol Development Grant comes from the California Department of Housing and Community Development and requires the new center be up and running by September 2011. The new home is planned for a site on Golden Gate Terrace.

A hearing with Grass Valley to issue the permit is scheduled for Nov. The former commercial building will take some work, however, so Hospitality House will launch a campaign to raise another $600,000 in funds and donated materials.

Hospitality House has been a part of our family at GVUMC for five years. We are pleased that we could help provide necessary shelter and services and gave them the support needed to move to a permanent year round facility that can also serve families.

From: The DeSilva Family

To: Tana & Grass Valley UMC

"We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven... Colossians 1: 3,5

With the help of so many of you, some of which have gone far beyond your Christian call of duty, my family and I have come out of a crisis situation and are settling now comfortably in Grass Valley. Our new home – a place for healing for our family. We give many thanks for the showers of blessings that have come to us through so many of you. The love and kindness you've all shown to my family and myself are truly appreciated. May God Himself, reach down, touch your lives with rich blessings and expand your territories. With sincere gratitude, we all thank you.

Mary, Jessica, Zachery, MaryAnn, & Jeannette DeSilva.

HOPE SCHOOL UPDATE

Warm greetings from Hope School;

The new school year has started, with lots of hopes and ambitions. This year we have about one hundred students, both boys and girls. The boarding section is full this year comparing to last year, ten lovely, cheerful boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years join us at the boarding section.

As for the new students who are entering Hope school for the first time, we tell them to get ready to embark on a wonderful new journey filled with new beginnings, friendships, perseverance and hope.

As always, the teachers are ready with lesson plans and visual aids to give knowledge, and help those students, and offer better education.

One can see the excitement in the eyes of the children about learning new things, they want to continue to learn, and that is the true joy of what makes this lifelong process.

Please join me in your prayers and let us look forward to a prosperous new school year.

May God bless you and enrich you in His grace.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

He says he never thinks of God,
He swears he's not aware
If there might be a deity
He claims he doesn't care.
He's not uncouth; in sober truth,
He is a loving man.
He's kind, not gruff; is this enough?
Is he a "Christian man?"

Does "Christian" mean the same as "good,"
Regardless of belief?
Can there be some "bad Christians"
Not living their belief?
Is simple kind behavior
Enough to claim the Name?
Did for good conduct Jesus die,
Soft words, sweet acts, no blame?

Did Jesus then teach etiquette,
"Be sure you don't offend,
Live nobly in the sight of all,
Be everybody's friend?"
Or is the Gospel sterner stuff,
Concerned with guilt and sin?
Does He describe a narrow path,
Where son-ship must begin?

True Christians are not perfect,
For only Christ is that;
Each day to grow, we surely know,
In God's new habitat
Means prayer, and sacrifice, and love.
Disciples must obey,
And walk Christ's road, share neighbor's load,
Each one in his own way.

Can this be done, can souls be won
Without the Father's love?
With Christ as guide Who walks beside,
Each day a step above
The place from which new life must start,
When first we knew within
The presence of the Spirit's power
So true life did begin

Are Christians truly better folk?
We'll have to wait and see.
Each life starts from a different place,
Not blind equality.
Sometimes I stumble and fall back,
Sometimes I lose the way,
If I'm not yet what I should be,
Well, one can always pray!

Winter Party with the Pastor

Each season Pastor Tana plans a public Party with the Pastor. Playing together, dancing together and having extended time to visit outside the church has been well received by all who participate.

Last year, we attended two theater performances at Off-Broad Street Theater, one with the congregation and pastor of Sierra Pines UMC. We sold out the entire theater! We also took a bus trip this summer to Annual Conference to participate in Ordination Worship Services and shared a fantastic dinner together.

Two festivals have also been gathering places for particularly our children and young families. The summer World Music Festival and the fall Celtic Festival. (See pictures on the Young Families page)

Music in the Mountains Dec 3

You are invited to get a group together and join us at the Amaral Family Festival Center at the Nevada County Fairgrounds Section B Chairs in the Tiers to start the Christmas season in an upbeat way—beautifully contemporary choral works and the ever popular carol sing-along, featuring the MIM Festival Chorale.

Tickets are $25 for adults and $5 for youth. Call now for tickets 265-6124. Please tell them you are from Grass Valley UMC--they are attempting to help us sit together! Contact Pastor Tana 272-1946 if you need assistance buying your ticket.
